Vienna, Aug. 22.

THE Marquis de Prié was prepared to ſet out to Day for the Hague; but is detained to aſſiſt at ſome Conferences on the Affairs of the Court of Rome: The Emperour deſigns likewiſe to ſpeak with him before his Departure, and he is to have Audience of his Imperial Majeſty to Morrow Night, and to begin his Journey the Day after. Count Palfi inveſted Temiſwaer on the 15th inſtant. The 14th at two a Clock in the Morning the whole Imperial Army marched towards Zenta, there to paſs the Tibiſcus, and 'tis reckoned they arrived to Day before Temiſwaer. The Siege of which Place is judged to be of great Importance; for by the taking of it Tranſylvania will be covered, and Moldavia and Walachia put under Contribution: The Troops may likewiſe take their Winter Quarters in thoſe two laſt Provinces, and poſſeſs themſelves of the Iſland of Orſava, by Means of which they may hinder the Turks from bringing any Veſſels up the Danube. Beſides, this Siege is much more eaſy than that of Belgrade would be; for the Turks might diſpute the Paſſage of the Save, are near at Hand to put what Garriſon they pleaſe into Belgrade, and have doubtleſs turned their chief Precautions to that Side; whereas they are at great Diſtance from Temiſwaer, the Siege of which may be formed before the Infidels can ſo much as lay a Bridge over the Danube, where 'tis known they have none ready.

Stockholm, July 14. O. S. The King of Sweden continues ſtill encamped near Swineſund with all the Infantry he brought back out of Norway, but moſt of the Swediſh Cavalry are on the March to Schonen, where a Deſcent from Zeland is ſuddenly expected. The Letters by the Poſt from Elſingborg have brought an Account, that M. Neubauer, who was ſome Time ago the Swediſh Miniſter at Conſtantinople, was brought by two Dutch Pinnaces to the Bridge of Elſingborg, with deſign to ſet him aſhoar; but the Governour of the Place having the King's Orders to permit no Perſon whatever to Land there, refuſed to receive him, and threatned to ſink the Boats in caſe they did not forthwith retire; whereupon ſome of the Seamen caſt M. Neubauer (by his own Order) out of their Pinnace towards the Bridge, and ſo left him. He got hold of one of the Piles of the Bridge, and with much Entreaty was at laſt taken up; yet he is kept under Arreſt till the King's Pleaſure be known. Laſt Week two ſmall Muſcovite Galleys were ſent hither, which the Swediſh Cruiſers took lately on the Finniſh Coaſt. The Priſoners taken on board them ſay, that great Preparations are marking at Abo in order to invade Sweden from thence, and that 20000 Men will be employed in that Enterprize. The Privateer Owners at this Place have, within theſe 8 Days, began to equip ſeveral of their Privateers; which makes it be apprehended that they intend to lye at the Mouth of this River, and take the Ships which load here as they go out to Sea, ſince they ſee that at Gottenburgh Ships going from hence are made Prize.

Stockholm, July 24. O. S. 'Tis adviſed from Elſingborg, that on the 14th a Pinnace with a Britiſh Flag came towards the Bridge of that Place, with Intention to deliver a Letter, which an Officer, to ſhew what his Buſineſs was, held up in his Hand; but the Guards obliged the Pinnace to retire, without ſuffering it to come to the Bridge. The ſame Advices ſay, that the next Morning early the Britiſh and Dutch Squadrons ſailed up into the Baltick. Laſt Week a Train of Artillery for the Field, conſiſting of 44 Braſs Cannon of ſeveral Sizes, with Stores of Ammunition, was imbarked here, in order to be tranſported to Carlſcrona; from whence it is to be conveyed by Land to Schonen. Letters from the Northward adviſe, that three Officers came to Umo laſt Week, who made their Eſcape from Petersbourg, and bring an Account of Count Piper's Death: And as the ſame News came alſo lately from Dantzick, its Truth is no longer doubted. Theſe Officers confirm the late Intelligences from Finland of the Preparations of the Muſcovites at Abo, and give Reaſon to believe that at leaſt 20000 Muſcovites will enter the Province of Helſingland very ſuddenly; yet no Diſpoſitions are hitherto made on this Side to oppoſe them. On the 18th Inſtant the Prince of Heſſe Caſſel ſet out from the Wells of Medway to go to the King, and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs went at the ſame Time to a ſmall Town called Wadſtena, where it is ſuppoſed his Majeſty will make her a Viſit when he returns to Schonen. The Commiſſioners appointed ſome Time ſince by his Swediſh Majeſty, to inquire into the Complaints made by the young Duke of Holſtein, againſt the Adminiſtrator and Miniſtry employed by him, having drawn up their Report, have ſent it to his Majeſty.

Copenhagen, Aug. 29. Yeſterday being the Birthday of the Queen and of the Princeſs the King's Siſter, was celebrated at Court. On the 27th and Yeſterday the Muſcovite Cavalry arrived in their Camp near this City. Two Days ago arrived Commadore Tornſchield from Norway, in a Man of War, with two of the King's Gallies. He took before Gottenbourg a Swediſh Privateer of 8 Guns, and burnt another Ship before that Port. The Fleet of the Northern Allies continues cruiſing near Bornholm, while the Merchant Ships proceed on their reſpective Voyages. 'Tis confirmed that the Swediſh Fleet having ſeparated, is retired part into Carlſcroon, and the reſt into Carlſhaven. We expect with the firſt fair Wind the Ruſſian Troops from Pomerania and Mecklenbourg, it not being doubted that the Tranſports which ſailed from hence ſome Days ago are arrived there, and the Czar himſelf is there to haſten the Imbarkation. For ſome Days paſt Workmen have been employed in cutting level almoſt with the Water, two large Ships which formerly were uſed in Voyages to the Indies; and they are now to ſerve as flat Veſſels on which Batteries are to be placed, in the intended Deſcent. 'Tis ſaid Vice-Admiral Judicher will have the Direction of the ſaid Deſcent, as Admiral Seeſtedt had of that on the Iſle of Rugen.

Whereas Mr. Franciis Larrocque, a French Clergyman, aged about 26, of a low Stature, who can ſpeak no Engliſh, a pale Complexion, in a black Coat, a Band, a Roſe Hat-band about his Hat, and a light Wig, going in the Cherſey Row-barge from London, to the ſaid Chertſey in Surrey, on the 7th of Auguſt laſt, landed the ſame Day between the Hours of 7 and 8 in the Evening at Sheperton; walk'd from thence in Company to Chertſey-bridge, and went over it between 8 and 9, and hath not been ſeen or heard of from that Time, though carefully inquired after: This is to give Notice, That if the ſaid Mr. Larrocque has been murthered (as is for ſome Reaſons ſuſpected) any one of the Accomplices in the Fact, (not being the Perſon by whoſe Hands he was killed) ſhall, on Diſcovery of the reſt, ſo as they be brought to Juſtice, receive His Royal Highneſs's moſt Gracious Pardon.

His Royal Highneſs is alſo graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of 50 l. to ſuch Diſcoverer.
